Iraqi leader Saddam Hussein orders his troops to the border of oil-rich Kuwait. The U.S. sends 350 warplanes to the area to support the Kuwaiti forces. By October 11, Hussein orders the withdrawal of most of his forces.

Russian President Boris Yeltsin calls out his poorly trained military to subdue a rebellion in Chechnya, a southern republic the size of Connecticut. Critics accuse Yeltsin of resorting to totalitarian methods of the old communist Soviet regime to keep the shaky Russian Federation united.

Europe's worst flood in this century kills at least 30 people across Europe. Inland floods caused by melting Alpine snow and relentless rains hit Belgium, France, Germany, and the Netherlands, whose famous dike system begins to crumble late in January 1995 in the face of rampaging rivers. Dutch authorities evacuate 250,000 people from the lowlands.

Camilla Parker Bowles, allegedly Prince Charles' mistress, announces her divorce from her husband, Andrew Parker Bowles. Princess Diana is said to be negotiating a divorce from Charles, who will be free to remarry without giving up the throne—unless unhappy subjects force a referendum on the monarchy.

More than 900 passengers die, 140 are rescued when the Estonia, a 15,500-ton Baltic ferry sinks off the coast of Finland in a violent nighttime storm. The storm's 30-foot waves swamp the ship which lists and sinks in a matter of minutes.

Thousands of Cubans flee their economically depressed homeland, hoping for a better life in America. Many set off on homemade rafts and other small vessels only to be intercepted by the U.S. Coast Guard. The United States and Cuba reach an agreement in September that allows 20,000 Cuban immigrants to enter the United States each year.

In the wake of the 1994 Los Angeles earthquake and the southern California wildfires of 1993, California experiences more natural disasters in January 1995 when rainstorms cause flooding that kills 11 people and leaves 3,000 others homeless. Flooding is so high in Santa Barbara, fun-seeking teenagers dive off a freeway overpass into 15 feet of water. President Clinton declares 34 counties federal disaster areas.

In 1994, the U.S. registers a one-year population growth of 2.7 million. One-third of the increase is due to immigration, the largest such influx since 1914.

Author and humanities professor, Ralph Ellison, dies at age 80. His 1952 novel, Invisible Man, has been called the most powerful novel written about alienation, identity, and racism in America.

A huge increase in killings by 14- to 24-year-olds raises the nation's homicide rate, while violence blamed on preteens rocks communities nationwide. A boy, 13, is sentenced to life for strangling a four-year-old. In Chicago, an 11-year-old boy kills a 14-year-old girl and is then executed by his own gang. In Washington state a pair of 12-year-olds shoot a migrant worker.

The death of Jacqueline Kennedy Onassis in May 1994 marks the end of an era, a time when America was prosperous, fighting for civil rights, and heading for the moon. The former first lady is buried next to her husband, President John F. Kennedy, in Arlington National Cemetery, Washington, D.C.

ACTIVITIES

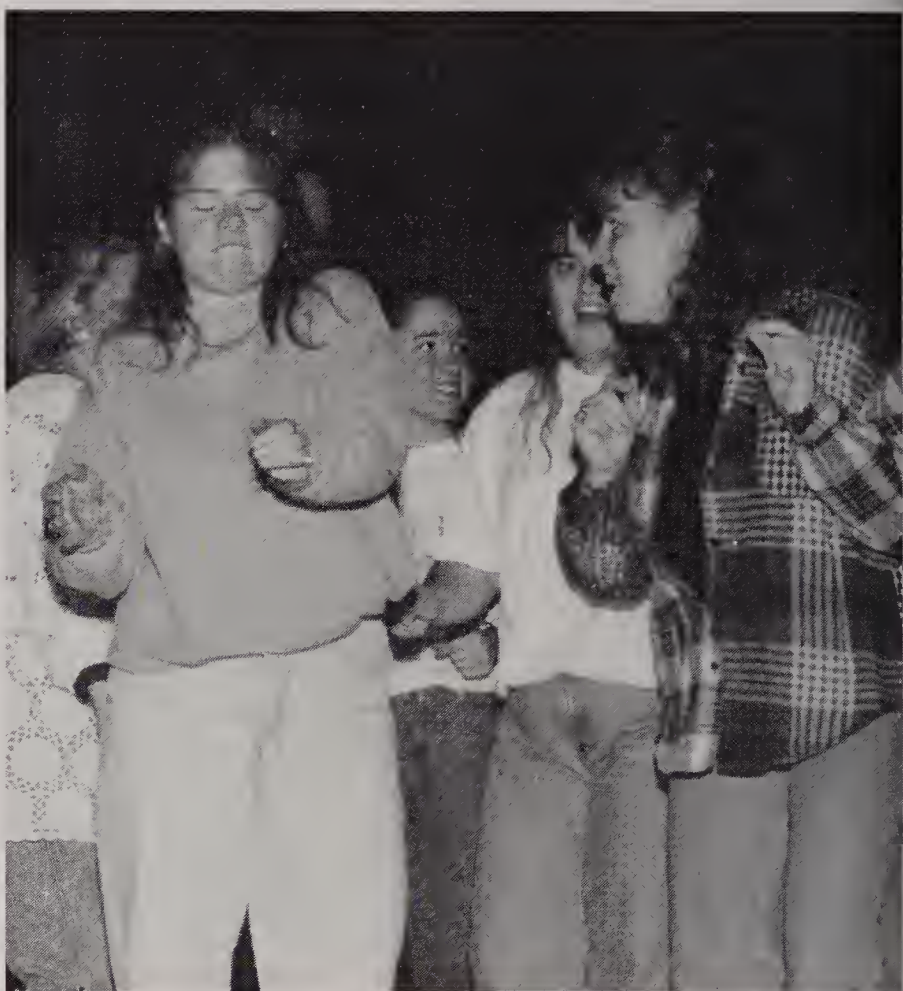

Parents & Alumni Weekend

Parents and alumni were invited back to Assumption on October 21-23, 1994 for the annual Parent/Alumni Homecoming Weekend. This is the first year the two were combined. The goal of the Homecoming Committee was to bring the entire Assumption College Community together for one weekend.

The theme for this year's Homecoming was the celebration of Assumption's 90th birthday. The weekend started off on Friday with Spellbinder, the hypnotist and Friedhoffer, the madman of magic. Together they captivated and astonished a crowd in the Plourde Center.

Saturday's events moved off campus for the second annual "Greyhound Classic" Golf Tournament held at Holden Hills Country Club. Back on campus the day's events began with a Parent/Alumni Barbecue held on Norman Marois field. As parents and alumni enjoyed the great weather, good food, and the friendly company of the Assumption College community, the Greyhound Football team won a decisive victory over visiting Curry College. Midway through the afternoon, the Chorale performed in the chapel of the Holy Spirit; the men's soccer team met Saint Michael's; and an alumni reception was held in the Hagan Campus Center.

The highlight of the weekend came on Saturday night where Gilbert Godfried performed in front of a crowd of 12,000. His performance was followed by the Assumption College 90th Birthday Dance, which included a large birthday cake for everyone to enjoy. On Sunday, the hectic weekend wound down with Mass in the Chapel and a brunch in Taylor Dining Hall. It was a great time for everyone!

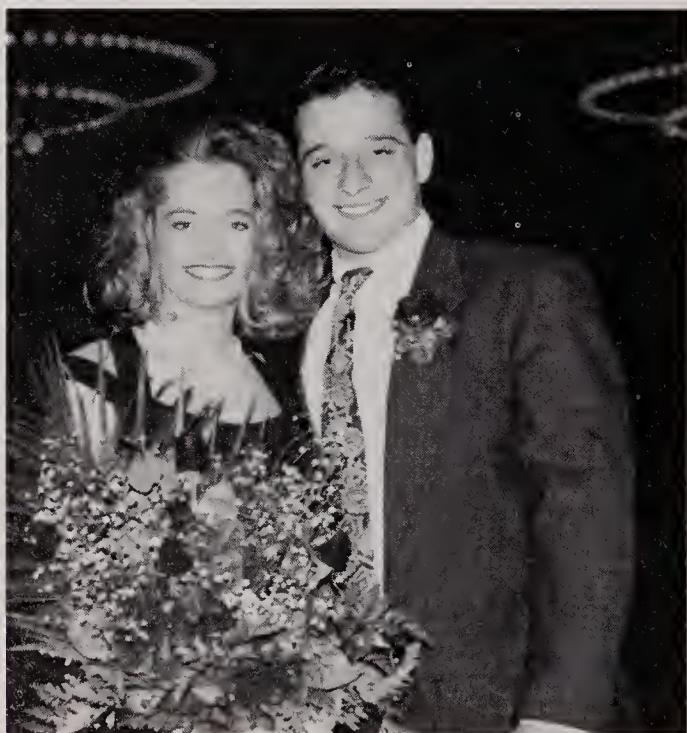

Christmas Ball

The Christmas Ball '94 was held on December 3rd at Mechanic's Hall on Main Street. The event was attended by over 350 students who enjoyed the rich history, culture, and great friends who surrounded them, and made the evening so memorable. The Christmas Ball will be remembered by many as a beautiful evening with special people and and great friends.

Spring Ball

This year's Spring Ball was held on April 28, 1995 at the Holiday Inn. Over three hundred students attended the dance; it was a major success and enjoyed by all who were there. The students arrived to cocktails and music that made the night memorable forever. Thanks to the Campus Activities Board who organized another outstanding event. -JL

Siblings Weekend

The theme of this year's Sibling's Weekend was "Under the Big Top". On Saturday there was a carnival at which the roughly 200 siblings participated in activities such as Air Ball, Velcro Olympics, Speed Pitch, and many game booths. They were able to win tickets in the games which they could cash in for candy and prizes. Later in the day, a giant game of Twister was set up in the Plourde Center.

That night, Bruce Jacques and His Invisible Band entertained students and siblings alike. Jacques played a variety of songs and even enticed some of the audience members to dance with him.

Other events included Friday evening's hypnotist and Jay Morong's Sibling Rivalry Game. The hypnotist had audience members doing such ridiculous things as drinking "laughing water" and dancing in a conga around the stage.

All in all, Sibling's Weekend 1995 was a huge success and a busy weekend that will not soon be forgotten.

OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

ASSUMPTION COLLEGE
500 Salisbury Street, PO Box 15005, Worcester, MA 01615-0005 Tel: 508/752-5615

To the Student Body of Assumption College:

I welcome this opportunity to extend greetings to the student body of Assumption College and warmest congratulations to the members of the Class of 1995.

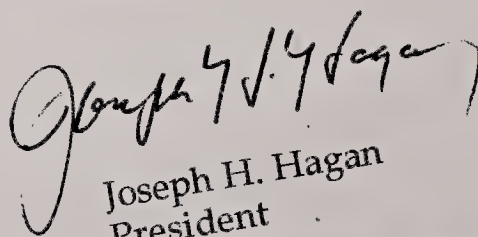

Assumption College strives to educate you in the traditions of Christianity and the liberal arts and to promote Christian living. We are a community of learning in the Catholic tradition and dedicated to the pursuit of truth wherever it is found. We are dedicated to the development of the whole person and concerned with your welfare, academically, spiritually, and personally.

It is my fervent hope that the time you have spent at Assumption has prepared you to meet the challenges that lie ahead. In a special way, it is my hope that the graduating Class of 1995 leaves Assumption better prepared to assume the responsibilities of citizenship and Christian living. The motto of the College - Until Christ Be Formed in You - is one I hope will remain with you throughout your lives as a reminder of our final destiny and of the source of all that is good.

Your education did not begin at Assumption, nor should it end with graduation. Likewise, I sincerely hope that for the graduating Class of 1995 this is the beginning of a long and joyful association with your Alma Mater. I welcome and look forward to your continued interest as alumni and alumnae.

May God grant all of you good health, happiness and success.

Sincerely,

Joseph H. Hagan

1994-1995

Crew

The motion is so fluid, so smooth and so seemingly effortless that the agony on the athletes' faces near the end seems out of place.

The last 500 meters of the race are excruciating. The energy is all gone. The muscles are burning. The body is well into oxygen debt. But the mental discipline remains, and the athletes continue, straining to synchronize each motion, and mentally counting the strokes to the finish.

The cross country skier and the distance speed skater know well the pains of athletic endurance. But the skier and the skater compete alone. Only the rower has the additional burden- the knowledge that their performance affects those who sit in front and behind them.

NO MORE PAPERS.....

*No more papers. No more books.
No more teachers' dirty looks. No more ducks. No more geese. No more old, dirty bed sheets. No more parties. No more fun. No more last-minute papers to be done. No more roommates. No more Plourde. No more campus rumors to be ignored.
No more noise. No more calls. No more brunches at Taylor Dining Hall. No more voice mail. No more Bro. No more trips to six men left to go. No more deadlines. No more grades. No more visits by concerned
R.A.s. No more readings. No more unfinished tasks. No more hanging out with the senior class.*

Michael,

How many ways can we express our absolute joy, our immense pride, our smiling admiration, and our pure, unadulterated excitement at your latest accomplishment. Not nearly enough, my son, because words simply cannot convey the elation that is bursting in our hearts.

Michael - you did good!

We remember your first day of kindergarten, your initial voyage on the school bus, the trepidation of your first day in High School, and the empty bedroom indicating your new college dormitory status. All minor passages that led to the latest achievement of note, proficiency, and realized dreams.

Michael, we want you to forever remember that you have given us unbridled happiness and unfettered jubilation. Our pride in you was initiated at your birth (and, oh, what a pretty baby you were) and it has perpetually grown with the passage of time. You have faced adversity, accepted responsibility, actively participated, diligently strived, and ultimately achieved.

The world awaits you and all that you have to offer. Our fervent wish is that your life is filled with as much joy as you have bestowed on us. We are pleased. We are proud. We are happy that you are our son. May all of your dreams become reality, and may your reality become your most ardent desire.

Michael, you have compassion and love; and that is substance is life. You have character and integrity; and that is the substance of greatness.

We love you ALWAYS
Mom & Dad

Dear Assumption College,

You may look upon these pages several months after graduation or on the day of your 25th class reunion, and I hope that you see an adequate reflection of our lives at Assumption from 1994-1995. I think it is an extremely successful book. This was the first yearbook in a long time to sell over 280 copies and especially to not only seniors. Also, Jostens gave us the use of a Power Macintosh to accomplish this task, this made it much less difficult. I would thank my fellow students, but especially my friends, roommates, and Rob Callahan for thier support. The editor-in-chief before me, Jennifer Harrak, did show me a lot, and I thank her.

Jon, I hope you have as much support as I did. Good luck. And good luck to everyone. I hope you enjoy it.
